Press release from: Transatlantic Business Gateway

February 15, 2008 South Easton, Massachusetts – Transatlantic Business Gateway is an international cooperative of like-minded professional service organizations in Europe and the US, whose collective goal is to assist entrepreneurial-minded ventures during their initial and early-stage overseas expansion efforts.

By applying and sharing partners' respective core expertise, Transatlantic Business Gateway's focus is to educate, streamline processes, nurture contacts, and resolve common obstacles associated with expanding internationally.

Five directors have been named to head Transatlantic Business Gateway operations. They are: Matthias Leitzmann, Sebastian Grillo, Moshe Zarmi, Wade Thomas and James Conant.

The combined experience of Leitzmann, Grillo, Zarmi, Thomas and Conant's businesses will provide support for European businesses desiring to expand into the United States, as well as businesses in the United States that plan to expand into Europe.

Transatlantic Business Gateway will support businesses in these areas: Partner and Executive Search Services, Overseas Staffing, Market Research, Sales Support, Strategic Development, Advertising and Public Relations, Internet Services, Sales Lead Generation, Venture Funding, and Legal Assistance.

With offices in Europe and the United States having multi-language capabilities, businesses can now find a single source of business services to support their expansion into new markets.

About The Transatlantic Business Gateway

Transatlantic Business Gateway is a cooperative group of professionals working together to provide professional business services for USA and European business entities that require assistance in moving their business into new markets.

Transatlantic Business Gateway was created to assist small to mid-size businesses with critical, initial services enabling them to make a quick and smooth entry into international markets. With an in-depth network of business professionals, Transatlantic

Business Gateway will save businesses time, reduce the cost of market entry, and remove the fear of failing to understand the ins-and-outs of international markets and local customs.
