Press release from: Lovenfeldt Marketing

Marvin Lovenfeldt, who is the publisher and editor of "The Network Marketing Success Ezine" and a 12 year industry veteran - explains:

"Building a down line in any network marketing company can be very hard for the average busy person who only have a few hours available a week and especially when starting out. We try to find and publish quality articles that tells about the suggested ways to build the business."

"With the new domain", "we are now able to manage a huge subscriber base and we simply notify the subscribers when the latest edition is ready and on line. We never send the ezine via email, since the MLM industry contains so many so called spam words, that less than half of the emails would get to the readers".

"We also notify via RSS feed, which means that if you subscribe to the RSS feed no spam filter can block the message, and you will know the second the ezine goes live", Mr. Lovenfeldt continues.

"With the latest technologies, such as RSS feeds and blogs", Mr. Lovenfeldt concludes, "there's really no need to read long boring email text newsletters anymore. We design the ezine just like a normal web site. And, for our advertisers, that mean their ads stay on line forever".

The Network Marketing Success Ezine is the creation of Marvin Lovenfeldt. Since 1999 he has published a newsletter about how to succeed in MLM, and 40,000+ subscribers are happily expecting it every week.
