DUBAI – November 10, 2008 – Business Systems Group (BSG), the regional competency center for Exactus Inc., announced today that Al Hassani Group has selected Aware Warehouse Management Solutions to run its new 2 Million square feet Distribution Center in Dubai Investment Park.

Al Hassani group is engaged in Import and wholesale of fast moving consumer goods including glassware, household goods and cosmetics; manufacture and distribution of food including nuts, sugar, ketchups and sauces, tea, milk powder, custard powder, breakfast cereals, beverages, baby food, candies, frozen food and meats products; food canning; manufacture of kitchen cabinets and wooden doors; provides information technology services; develops and invests in real estate properties. They have selected Exactus' Aware Warehouse management system (WMS) to support its rapid growth and expanding product lines.

After implementing Exactus' Aware WMS, the group expects to achieve significant logistics optimization that is key to its continued growth, including labor savings, decreased throughput time, increased fill rate, and improved inventory accuracy at the bin level. The company also expects the solution to increase visibility, driving informed decision-making across the company.

"With the new system in place, we are looking to consolidate diverse supply chain systems into a unified process," said Youl George, Logistics Manager at Al Hassani Group. "Tight integration of Exactus Aware Logistics Solutions can improve efficiency and visibility across the supply chain and increase productivity, helping Al Hassani generate value and achieve strategic advantage—both today and in the long term."

"We chose BSG because of its credible presence and vast experience in the Supply chain Software execution space," said Abbas Hassani, Vice President of Al Hassani Group. "Exactus' Aware Supply Chain Solutions offer the most functionality 'out of the box' to meet our needs. These solutions will help us establish efficient processes in our supply chain, effectively collaborate with our suppliers and stores and provide greater service to our customers."

"Exactus solutions help fast-growing companies like Al Hassani manage evolving business demands," said Mohideen Shaikh, Business Development Manager at BSG. "We're thrilled to work with Al Hassani Group on this strategic project that will help the company meet its aggressive goals for growth and distribution excellence."
